Ties = Singles from the front then singles from the back.

Even with snow in the forecast the MN/WISC Border Battle was held on January 23, 2021. The last squad out, shot in snow flurries.

1st squad, post one, Tony Brand set the bar. Tony missed a couple singles but ran the handicap for a 48 !! Nice shooting Tony. 2nd squad out, post one, Ray Monson, using a borrowed gun, misses one singles target and he runs the handicap field for a 49. Nice shooting Ray and that's two good scores for MN.

At the end of the day...MN came out on top with a 5 man score of 236. WI had a 5 man total of 214.

The top 5 for MN were Ray Munson, Tony Brand, David Maples, Derek Fischer and Scott Steffen. Top 5 for WI were Bob Meyer, Dave Mansell, Cole Sutheimer, Dan Weishaar and Jeff Prescott. Congrats to all of you. Nice shooting.

There is already a rematch tentatively set for Sunday, February 7th, and it will be held at the Hudson Rod, Gun & Archery Club. Mark your calendars now.

Winter Trap & Skeet Leagues

More Skeet shooters wanted, but anyone interested can still join both the Trap and Skeet leagues. Come out and hone your skills and enjoy the company!

Lewis Class. No teams needed -- each shooter is their own team. $10 league fee. Your top six scores out of 12 week scores are counted.

Remember: league scores have to be in red ink. Practice in blue or black ink.

Will allow shooters to shoot back six weeks, so that shooters can have as many opportunities as possible. Will be allowed to shoot back until Feb 6, so shooters have the next two weekends to catch up. Then, shooters can shoot ahead as much as they want.

Shooters can get ammo at the club if needed.
